motive `fit_size_uncertainty` · uncertainty `fit` · category `western`

YouTube · id UgzLdInIR6zeN8auaUp4AaABAq

There's something definitely wrong with most of the size chart guides. The other day I was ordering a pair of Levi's jeans, when I checked my waist it was exactly 36 inches, I did it twice, so I ordered a pair of jeans size 36. When I received my order and checked it, it was way very loose on me. I double-checked the size, and size 36 was written on the inside tag. However, when I measured the waist of jeans by myself, the exact length of the waistline was 38.4 inches. I mean wtf!!!
The size 36

You should absolutely not be measuring like that. You measured underneath your toe and underneath your heel. You should have your foot with all of its weight standing on a piece of paper and your heel backed up against a wall. You need to know how much your foot is going to spread out with your weight on top of it. Your makeup's on point though.

Myntra does not have 30 day return policy on most products...most I hv seen is 7-10 days. And who are they fooling telling that they can not recognise fake products when you have all types of bar codes and tags that are being used to track if it's the same product. Also, all sizes for these sites are copy paste and completely useless ...hv faced that issue so many times.

Love the variety and option to return if it doesn't fit!. Myntra has been a boon especially when you are figuring out your size and malls are closed due to the lockdown. The no hassle shipping and returns allows customers to buy-try and keep what fits. They also carry a lot of brands so options are limitless. I love the feature of body type too. Thanks Myntra.

When I am trying to return it, it is asking to post the picture of the product and when I am trying to post the picture of the product... It is continuously showing..."Item is not getting selected" what to do now 😞😞😞😞😞😞 The what's app service is also not working 🙄 properly

I ordered Platform loafers from them in 2023. At first, they cancelled my order after a few weeks and then on 2nd order they took a lot of time to deliver. I am a size UK 7/ 41 and that is the size I got here as well. But their size 7 is much smaller than other brands. I could not exchange for a larger size as 7 was the largest they had. My only option was to return it and get my money back. Due to their shady return policies, I am now stuck with something I can't use. I am glad someone is talk

Kuhl Pants that fit me measure different than what they say they are, which is different from what I measure on me!? Unsure of everything now! Pants Say 36x30 (waist x length) I Measure 39x32 (waist at my waistline where the belt would be x length from ankle to actual waistline) Pants actually measure out to be exactly 39x39 These Pants are the perfect length, and leave about an inch or two in the waist for the belt to compress... go figure!?

In case offline store you can take n number of selected dress to try whether it looks good on you or not, in online there is no scope to try , so basically you have to take few more pieces than you wanted and whatever don't look good on you, you have to return...but Myntra took convience fees for those extra return...so, had to stop buying from Myntra... if this is the policy, offline is better, atleast rare chances of impulsive shopping

I ordered a dress for my birthday and upon receiving the order I see that the material is so pale. Looks absolutely different from what they have shown in the app. And I'm shocked to see that there is no return policy. I mean what the hell. I don't even like it and the fit looks pathetic. My money is gone and I have no idea what to do with it 😞

As someone who had a very similar experience with them 2 years ago (before they were on Shark Tank), I've been trying to warn people online and IRL to stay away from them. The material on the vast majority of items is cheap af, the zippers stop working within a couple of uses, the seams can rip at any time, the sizing is whack, and they only offered store credit for returns at the time. Reason I stopped shopping much from the online website 1. People misuse the return policy and return backs the damaged or used product and in turn companies sell them back to some another customer. 2. Non reliability of these online apps like flipkart amazon etc.. they show something else and give something else.

On Myntra, the photos of the clothes are so edited that the colour of the clothes shown on the pictures are wayyy different that the clothes' actual colour. It is done deliberately. In the photos, the clothes look like they are of good quality, but when you receive them as a customer, you receive the footpath quality colour and stitching. I always make sure to check photos uploaded by reviewers, at least I see the real colour and quality then.

Many at times I get the order and cover says it it is a returned Piece. I clearly reject such products. Also, myntra should cut down on return days. It should be just 24 hours. Because if someone doesn't like it, they will never even after 10 days. So it helps to avoid them using and returning it. India has become low on integrity, quality and character.

Disgusting behaviour from myntra team. So basically I have ordered earphone for my use from Nu Republic there is a policy that you cant exchange or return the earphone I saw the ratings so I ordered, first they cancel my order after that i ordered again then after some days i received my parcel then i try them. The earphone are not fit for my ears They are very painful for my ears and very bad quality there are no extra earbuds. I try to return them From last 3 days they are making excuses there

I always wondered why they offer such low prices compared to other platforms. I suspect Myntra doesn't sell original products, and they also sell used products as new ones. one more you people think you got a product of 500rs at 400rs but while the end of the purchase they going to charge exact amount 509rs or more. After purchasing the product if you want to replace it do to any circumstances you do a war for it myntra don't have proper customer care services.worst delivery services

Blocks negative reviews - cannot trust. I would have given the app 5 stars as it is convenient and provides a great selection. However, when it comes to trustworthiness and transparency the app is highly suspicious. I have purchased items that are not as described or shown (eg. supposedly stretchable jeans turns out not to be stretchable, or a top is shown as having proper lining but the lining in the real top is too low making the top see-through etc). I came to the app to get the Batman backpack I've seen on Instagram and a couple other items. when I try to see the conversion of money because I am from the US nothing in the app helps you. this is my first time doing something like this so it was a little frustrating. but my biggest issue is not able to tell what the real prices are. even if I go to Google and put in exactly what the price is. Google will translate it saying like the backpack is $5,000 and I know that can be the case.

Myntra has started using AI-generated product images for clothing listings, and it's becoming difficult to trust what the actual product looks like. I found the exact same outfit elsewhere, but the Myntra listing used heavily AI-edited photos that changed the appearance of the garment. For a platform known for fashion shopping, real product photos should be the standard. This feels misleading and disappointing. And they sell copy of every outfit.

Pretty Bad .. making us fool. Myntra advertises and shares so many vouchers ... shop for 8000 and get 3000 discount , Shop for 10k get this n that etc etc .. have more than 20-25 vouchers but none of them get applied. Myntra is an outstanding shopping app. I always get original products from it. The only drawback is that the price of all products is higher here than other apps.

Very bad experience with myntra. Refund of Myncash is just a trap, using Myncash for shopping and then after returning items costs you all the cash, because they return the cash in expired form. Also they charge you a platform fee and do not return it while returning items. A very costly platform, the same items are at a low price on another platform.

1 Star 1 Star. This app attracts customers with low-price offers, takes payment upfront, then delays the order with vague "logistics issues." After making you wait for days, they cancel the order and hold your refund for another 2–3 days. By then, the same product is available only at a much higher price. This is a complete waste of time and a terrible customer experience. I won't trust their offers again. Don't trust the offers if you don't want your money stuck for days and your order

First of all this app charges ₹23 as a platform fee and then when I use My Cash as a discount then the app says that this applies on ₹199 above orders . This is disgusting because I used My Cash in a previous order there is no this type of rule . So uninstall this app and use another app instead of this app.

So, previously I gave 1 star due to the price issue but again after installing Myntra a couple of months ago they really seemed to have taken the review and launched so many good and stylish clothes and accessories; that I was looking forward to for quite long in other apps. But although now I happily shopping here because of the vastness, glad Myntra didn't disappoint when it comes to COLLECTION regardless of the price of the qualities are great! So now it's 5 stars from my side!

I think u should try making videos of different topics too like other YouTubers rather than only sponsored or these type of old fashion contents . Every suits looks bad with poor fabric and no style statement. Very outdated honestly. And Rakhi has already arrived , Abhi yeh video dalke kya faida ? Return pick up issue. I have been a frequent buyer with Myntra. First time ever I faced this issue while returning the product a agent will not come to pickup. I brought a product and even checked if return/exchange was available as I was not sure of the size. The product was large so I registered for return. Only while returning the product I came to know that I have to courier the product on my own, as my pin-code is not eligible for pick up (I stay in Mumbai's most prime location). Had I know

Myntra is going down the drian. I've been a loyal customer of myntra for almost a decade. I've only been facing issues for the past couple of months. I placed an order with no exchange coupon since I trust Mango products and i don't have to return it. I received the product without belt and the product was Out of stock to place an exchange. I waited until a few days before the exchange deadline to see if the product is back in stock. Since it was not I contacted customer care to place the return

★ Very disappointing experience with Myntra This has happened to me multiple times. I place an order at a discounted price and pay in full. The order is confirmed, but on the delivery date, I'm told there is a "slight delay." After several days, the order is eventually cancelled due to a "technical issue." By then, the same product is often available at a much higher price, and I have to wait another week for my refund. This is extremely frustrating and unfair to customers.

End of Season Sale Feels Misleading. Very disappointed with the End of season Sale on Myntra. When I wanted to order certain products during the sale at discounted prices, Myntra showed that they could not be delivered to my address. However, now that the sale is over and the prices have increased, the exact same products are suddenly available for delivery to my location. This feels unfair and misleading. If a product can be delivered to my address now, why was it unavailable during the sale? I

Bad experience with Myntra. In initial days I really had good experience so I'm giving 2 stars but now Myntra is not a good app for shopping. In the name of convenience fee they make money. I had ordered my product with 30 size but the product was little bigger when I wanted to change the size was not available and there was chance of changing style but when I went to exchange it started showing error and when I called customer care they told me to return and reorder. Here I lost 20rupees. I re

Meesho one. Because ye ethinc dress vaise bhi saal me 2 bar nikalti hai fir naye occasions me naye khreedne padte hai. 1000rs is good price and itne price me meesho pe quality achi aa jati hai.obviously myntra ki stiching fabric durability achi hogi par meesho vala kapda bhi smbhal ke rakho to chal jata hai

I am in college and i see most of my friends do this with clothes,electronics(trimmer,earphones) and what not even they scam food delivery apps by report i had ordered non-veg and the order is veg poor zomato refunds them plus they can eat the food for free. There is a fest going on in my college and most of them have ordered clothes which they are going to wear for 1 day then return it simple.But the real simplicity is wearing what you have. I don't get their mindset,why to show off. I actual

Pathetic return experience since few months.. Myntra cheating people saying hassle free return, currently they are running a business model in which you get product hassle free but when you try to return they will full of hassle full return. Worst, pathetic, disgusting, painfull every word will seems less if you want to return any product from Myntra. Please do not believe in return model of Myntra it's pathetic now a days since past 4 months. I am cancelling my ordered products just to fear of

Good, but not upto the mark. The app is perfect when it comes to viewing the products and getting details about it.. But once we add the products to our wishlist and get back to it for finally reviewing to make our selections, the images are not downloading and and we have to use the links that appear and hence timeconsuming and frustrating. Then after that when we add it to our bag.. I cant see anything :(now I'm waiting hoping that my bag will be updated soon to make the purchase..I had done

Pathetic. Had a horrible experience with Myntra this time I ordered 2 dresses for my birthday last month the one which I ordered was totally different from the image even the material was so cheap the price of that dress was about 1400, and the quality was not even of 140 and if we talk about the 2nd dress than it took more than 15 days to confirm my order only to which of course I lost the occasion to wear it and I had got to cancel it anyway after cancellation my amount was not refunded for mor

So I have been ordering from this website for a very long time so instead of putting me on a total customer list This website has come up with something called fair usage policy, in this they want users to buy as much products as they order and the machine calculates how many returns we have done and then ther

Myntra has become money minded. We all got used to Myntra because of the luxury of having the liberty to try out dresses and clothes in the comfort of your own home. Myntra with its free free shipping and return policy offered us home shoppers the benefit of trying multiple clothes and making a purchase without seeing the quality of the clothes that are being purchased.
